

Finance North America Provides Mortgage Financing in Mexico

Finance North America is the leader in providing mortgage financing to U.S. and Canadian citizens on real estate transactions in Mexico.

(PRWEB) February 15, 2006 -- Americans and Canadians have been buying homes and condos in Mexico in record numbers, but reasonable home loans in Mexico have not been available to Americans and Canadians -- until now.

Up until recently financing in Mexico for US citizens was not available with the traditional loan terms and conditions to which US borrowers were accustomed. Previously, North Americans purchasing homes and condos in Mexico were paying cash or exorbitant interest rates for short term loans.

With the help of Finance North America, preferred financing options in Mexico are now available. Finance North America (FNA) provides traditional financing to North Americans looking to purchase real estate in Mexico. FNA specializes in cross-border financing, and is the preferred lender for obtaining a home loan in Mexico. FNA has a proven track record managing a variety of successful lending transactions on Mexico property, and as the leader of this new financial product. FNA has the credibility and experience required when buying a home that includes financing in Mexico.

Clients have been more than pleased with Finance North America's services.

"I recently closed on the purchase of a home in Los Cabos, Mexico. I was initially skeptical that financing in Mexico was available, and being the president of a company where service is our greatest asset, I was fearful of what to expect. Finance North America not only delivered the loan to allow me to purchase the property, but also provided me with an unexpected level of superior service. Rest assured, I will be recommending Finance North America to anyone who has an interest in financing a property in Mexico. Keep up the great work." --Your client for life, Jeff Maroz, President, Americorp Group.

Company Profile:

Finance North America was founded by Russ Schreier and Christian Alvarez, both of which have business experience in Mexico and expertise in the American home mortgage industry. FNA founders have over 25 years' experience in the mortgage industry and together are the "pioneers" of this new preferred financial product. In just the first few months of the financing being available, FNA's founders managed over a dozen lending transactions on Mexico property. As of December 2005, Finance North America had loan representatives covering all major resort locations in Mexico, including Cabo San Lucas, Puerto Penasco, Cancun, Mazatlan, and Puerto Vallarta. Their administrative offices are located in San Diego, California.
