— Real Estate Investment Opportunities in Mexico —

February 7, 2006, Deerfield Beach, FL – New Line Media Solutions is pleased to announce the selection of Finance North America of San Diego, CA, for an in-flight programming segment on “Real Estate Investment Opportunities in Mexico” for a three-part series on In-flight Entertainment Network. The show is hosted by James Brown (JB) from Fox NFL pre-game and post-game shows. The segment will air on CNN Airport Network, currently airing in 41 major airports, and on Frontier Airlines for one month.

If living in charming towns and owning beachfront property intrigue you, Mexico is the place for you. Buyers who dream of purchasing or building a home abroad in Mexico need to look no further. Rosarito/Ensenada, San Felipe, Puerto Vallarta, Acapulco, Cabo San Lucas, Loreto, Mazatlan and Cancun are among some of the most charmingly beautiful places where buyers can make their dream home a reality.

Finance North America is one of the most experienced in providing service in Mexico real estate lending for U.S. citizens and is committed to helping consumers find their dream home. Until now, financing in Mexico has never been this simple or obtainable. Russ Schreier, founder and CEO, along with his cofounders, have over 25 years of experience in the mortgage industry and is leading the way in providing financing in Mexico to Americans.

Finance North America specializes in purchase, refinance lending, and construction loans converted into permanent financing and has loan representatives in all major resort locations in Mexico. The loan amounts are up to $5,000,000 with 70% loan to value, with 20 and 30 year terms. Alternate and stated income documentation lending is also available.

During this segment, viewers will learn about mortgage lending in Mexico, dispel misconceptions, and discover investment and relocation opportunities.
