

Finance North America to be Featured on Frontier Airline's July Inflight Programs

Finance North America specializes in purchase, refinance lending, and construction loans converted into permanent financing and has loan representatives in all major resort locations in Mexico.

Deerfield Beach, FL (PRWEB) June 17, 2006 -- New Line Media Solutions is pleased to announce its Inflight Entertainment Network schedule for July. All two-minute segments will air on 5,500 Frontier Airline flights next month.

They will be seen by over one million passengers, who are given free headsets to enjoy the inflight programming. Imagine having the full attention of vacation travelers or business executives for several hours at a time! They will be reclining comfortably, seatbelts buckled, just settling in after catching their flight, waiting for their mind to be diverted to something exciting, challenging, interesting or unusual that could change their lives.

The features will also run once on CNN Airport, a televised broadcast at the top 41 airports in the U.S.

Finance North America will be one of Inflight's featured companies. The firm specializes in purchase, refinance lending, and construction loans converted into permanent financing and has loan representatives in all major resort locations in Mexico. Finance North America is one of the most experienced in providing service in Mexico real estate lending for U.S. citizens and is committed to helping consumers find their dream home. Russ Schreier, founder and CEO, has over 25 years of experience in the mortgage industry and is leading the way in Mexican land purchase. The loan amounts are up to $5,000,000 with 70% loan to value. Refinancing, full, light, and stated income documentation lending is also available.

Rosarito/Ensenada, San Felipe, Puerto Vallarta, Acapulco, and Cancun are among some of the most charmingly beautiful places where buyers can make their dream home a reality.

Frontier Airlines is the second largest carrier at Denver International Airport, and its audience consists of passengers with an average age of 40.8; more than three-quarters of whom have a college degree or higher; and 75% own their own home. In addition, as many travelers these days are also accompanied by their laptops, they will immediately check out your website as your promotion intrigues them!

Our In-Flight Entertainment Network offers informative, engaging and visually pleasing broadcast-quality features that travelers won't soon forget! New Line Media Solutions, a subsidiary of PTGTV, has the experience of producing and airing enormously successful shows such as Great Taste, Business & Beyond, Pulse on America and Today's Family on major cable networks like E!, Style, WE Women's Entertainment, Oxygen and the Hallmark Channel, as well as the Bloomberg Network and PAX-TV in local markets.
